Spacious Design. Classic Elegance.

Ironwood Court, one of Chicago's classic architectural gems, offers large spaces, stately beauty and a great location.

The vintage exterior has been restored to its original 1916 elegance - including a gracefully landscaped courtyard. Inside, the residential units are upgraded to include modern conveniences and energy efficiencies.

Living Large

The residential units have large windows to maximize natural light and ventilation. Equally impressive are the spacious floor plans which are designed for larger living accommodations. Residents can select from a 2 bedroom unit with 1 or 2 baths; a 3 bedroom unit with 1 or 2 baths, or a 4 bedroom unit with 2 baths.

Features

Individual temperature controls let you keep your apartment as comfortable you like it - no matter what the season.

Other apartment features include:

- Energy Star appliances
- Air-conditioning
- Private balcony
- Intercom security system
- On-site management office
- Secured on-site storage
- Secured indoor bike room
- Laundry room
- Landscaped courtyard

Enjoy the Area!

If you're looking for an excellent South Side location... look no further. Ironwood Court is set in Washington Park, one of the city's most historic neighborhoods.

No matter where you may need to go transportation is easy. Ironwood Court residents are minutes from the Dan Ryan Expressway, or public transportation can take you anywhere in the city. The CTA Green Line train station and the CTA bus stop are both a short distance away.

Washington Park

Picturesque Washington Park, one of Chicago's largest green spaces, is an oasis in the middle of the city.

Here you'll find a walking trail, a swimming pool, a fitness center, tennis courts, a playground, a lagoon and much more. In addition, the Park District offers year-round programs and recreational activities for various ages.

The famous DuSable Museum of African American History is adjacent to the park where rotating exhibits compliment the permanent collection.

Other nearby area attractions include Hyde Park with its large variety of restaurants and shopping choices, the University of Chicago hospitals and the Museum of Science and Industry.

Very Affordable

Most importantly, Ironwood Court Apartments are very affordable. The rent structure is based on income and certain qualifications. Please see a leasing agent for details.

Spacious Designs. Excellent Location. Affordable.
